BUILDING COMPASSIONATE COMMUNITIES

How Far We've Come - Networking End of Life Support across Tasmania

The workshop will look at the important role of palliative care including community and volunteer support.

It will demonstrate how diversity and cultural/spiritual needs can be addressed around end of life care.

Community Projects funded by Palliative Care Tasmania will share their insights around how small groups can raise awareness, offer bereavement support as well as build capacity around end of life issues at the local level.
